

Waterways signs LOI with Senegal water minister for rural development

WaterWays solutions signed an LOI with minister of water of Senegal on a rural water development project. The project will include five (5) rural areas, water sourcing, and water supply will be implemented through the vision of the holistic methodology.